888-391-FEST

New York, NY – May 10, 2010 – Offering something for everyone, the ninth annual River To River® Festival today unveiled a stellar line-up of free music, dance, and cultural events that firmly establishes Lower Manhattan as the city's summer arts capital.

Named "one of the city's most compelling summer series" by the New York Times, the River To River Festival is New York's largest free summer arts festival. Founded in 2002 to help revitalize Lower Manhattan after September 11th, the festival draws hundreds of thousands of people each year to Downtown's spectacular waterfront. The events span venues from the World Financial Center and Rockefeller Park on the Hudson River to Castle Clinton National Monument, Wagner Park, and Battery Park at Manhattan's tip to The Elevated Acre and The Seaport on the East River.

The 2010 River To River Festival presents an almost daily schedule of free events, from flagship annual events like The Bang on a Can Marathon, Children's Day at The Seaport, The 4th of July Concert in Battery Park, and Movies on the Elevated Acre to showcases for hotly-tipped artists like YACHT, Tiempo Libre, and choreographer Paul-André Fortier.

"The River To River Festival reflects the liveliness and diversity that has always made downtown Manhattan a vital part of the city's creative life," said Robin Schatell, Executive Director of The River To River Festival. "We're proud to once again offer a wildly eclectic program of outstanding, world-class entertainment for free."

Presented by American Express, the 2010 River To River Festival's schedule highlights include:

- Hailed as "the country's most provocative and consistently entertaining new-music event" by the Village Voice, the annual Bang on a Can Marathon at the World Financial Center Winter Garden draws huge crowds for a 12-hour marathon of mind-boggling, genre-bending music. This year's line-up includes the highly-anticipated U.S. premiere of Fausto Romitelli's Professor Bad Trip; a Bang on a Can All-Stars' premiere with Mira Calix; and Balinese Gamelan. (June 27)

- With tall ships as the backdrop, The Seaport continues to showcase rising and established indie music stars with Bear in Heaven (July 9), Thee Oh Sees (July 16), Free Energy and Best Coast (July 23), Avi Buffalo (July 30), and YACHT (August 6). The Seaport' kicks-off its season on July 2 with Yellow Fever and Woven Bones.
- The early evening concert series at Rockefeller Park, complete with stunning Hudson River sunset, includes: Renaissance and Steve Hackett (June 23rd), Beth Orton (June 30), Poets House's celebration of the poetry and music of Haiti starring L'Orchestre Septentrional (July 7), Haiti's oldest big band orchestra, Jimmy Webb and Martin Rivas (July 14), and Burning Spear (July 21)
- The annual 4th of July concert at Battery Park expands this year with music for all ages, including Dan Zanes and Friends performing Broadway classics, acclaimed Columbian band La Cumbiamba eNeYé!, and a participatory parade of 76 Trombones. The Broadway2Battery theme continues at Castle Clinton National Monument with a trio of concerts that includes Antibalas (July 22), the band behind the Broadway hit FELA!
- One of the city's best outdoor screening series returns with Movie Nights On The Elevated Acre, showcasing classic New York features paired with indie shorts screened on an open-air rooftop plaza overlooking the East River. The lineup includes four films united around the Broadway2Battery theme: Broadway Danny Rose (July 29), Auntie Mame (August 5), The Country Girl (August 12), and The Muppets Take Manhattan (August 19).
- The annual Children's Day at the Seaport culminates with the spectacular Target Fireworks, featuring a special performance by Apples in Stereo accompanied by the Brooklyn Youth Chorus. During the day, families can enjoy performances by Gordon from Sesame Street, Angelina Ballerina, and more, while meeting their favorite storybook characters like Clifford the Big Red Dog, Curious George, and Madeline. (June 26)
- The Joyce Theater co-presents 30 x 30 (July 16-August 19), in which acclaimed choreographer Paul-André Fortier performs a 30-minute dance in front of One New York Plaza at the same time of day for 30 consecutive days.
- LMCC's Sitelines 2010 presents new site-specific work at a variety of downtown venues by today's most exciting choreographers, including Phil Soltanoff (July 31 and August 1, Governor's Island), Yoshiko Chuma & the School of Hard Knocks (July 7 and 8, LentSpace), and Tali Hinkis and Kyle Lapidus's LoVid (August 9-12, One Chase Manhattan Plaza).
- Tiempo Libre, one of the most exciting young Latin bands, performs for two nights with a different special guest each night. (World Financial Center Winter Garden, August 4; Rockefeller Park, August 5)
- Wagner Park, with its view of the Statue of Liberty, hosts its wildly popular Latin music series with Plena Libre (July 28), and Nino Segarra and His Orchestra (August 11).

All of the following events are FREE, though tickets are required in some instances.

Madeleine Peyroux: Broadway2Battery

Music at Castle Clinton

Presented by Alliance for Downtown New York

As noted by NPR, Madeleine Peyroux became famous, in part, for putting idiosyncratic touch on time-tested standards. With a repertoire that extends from personal, original songs to a breadth of rare classics from a bygone era, Madeleine Peyroux's standards are anything but standard. Tickets will be distributed two per person outside Castle Clinton on a first-come, first-served basis starting at 5:00pm on the day of the show. 7pm, Battery Park at State Street. Free.

Friday, July 9

Bear in Heaven with Zola Jesus

Seaport Music

Bear in Heaven's self-described psychedelic, minimalist, pop represents endless hours of stream-of-consciousness, conceived and recorded by Jon Philpot, Adam Wills, Sadek Bazaraa, and Joe Stickney. All Southern transplants, the band now makes its home in Brooklyn and produces music described as "a powerful, functional mix of This Heat, 70s soft rock, early Genesis, and oddly, later Pink Floyd." With special guest Zola Jesus. 6pm, South Street Seaport, Pier 17. Free.

Saturday, July 10

Rochester City Ballet

Presented by Pace University

Discover the Rochester City Ballet, acclaimed as one of the best regional ballet companies in the United States, making its New York City premiere. Free.

Monday, July 12

Third Rail Projects: The Drifting Encyclopedia

Presented by Arts World Financial Center

The Drifting Encyclopedia is an assemblage of American oddities, scientific and historical ephemera, questionable accounts and implausible representations thereof. Part Victorian cabinet of curiosities, part roadside attraction, this art installation houses exhibits that echo themes of unlikely connections and contemplates the actual, illusory and anomalous nature of love. Created in correspondence to Undercurrents & Exchange, the performance series takes place in the Winter Garden. July 12 -- September 3. Monday through Friday, Noon–4pm, World Financial Center Courtyard Gallery 220 Vesey Street. Free.

Third Rail Projects: Undercurrents & Exchange

Presented by Arts World Financial Center

Undercurrents & Exchange is a rumination on the conundrum of love, infatuation and connection in modern America, manifested in a series of lunch-hour performances. Each day artists present a new dance grappling with improbable relationships and unearthing the hidden, interpersonal undercurrents daily routine. These daily dances are episodic and will culminate on July 23 when performed together to reveal their underlying meaning. Created in correspondence with The Drifting Encyclopedia art exhibition in the WFC Courtyard Gallery. July 12 -16 and July 19 -23 at Noon-12:10pm and repeated 1–1:10pm. Additionally on Friday, July 23 the company will perform an hour-long version, 7-8pm. World Financial Center Winter Garden, 220 Vesey Street. Free.

Deganit Shemy: 2 kilos sea

Sitelines Presented by Lower Manhattan Cultural Council

Critically acclaimed Israeli choreographer Deganit Shemy, known for her aggressively physical work, brings five dancers together in the close quarters of the courtyard at John Street United Methodist Church to explore the misinterpretations that occur in a nanosecond, exposing the fragility of time, of relationships and of accepting. Also July 13-15. 12:30pm, John Street United Methodist Church, 44 John Street. Free.

Wednesday, July 14

The Dan Martin/Nick Russo Duo

His album RO features Mark Turner, Miles Griffith and Ari Hoenig. 12:30pm, Zuccotti Park, Broadway between Cedar and Liberty Streets. Free.

Jimmy Webb with Martin Rivas

Presented by Battery Park City Authority

Singer and pianist Jimmy Webb is one of the few artists of the 1960s to achieve stardom and professional acclaim not performing, but composing and producing hits such as Wichita Lineman, Up, Up and Away, and MacArthur Park. Rising NYC singer/songwriter/guitarist Martin Rivas, of Serious Pilgram, has found acclaim opening for Aimee Mann, Hootie & the Blowfish, and Joan Jett. 7pm, Rockefeller Park, River Terrace and Warren Street. Free.

Thursday, July 15

Emmet Cohen

Presented by Arts World Financial Center

At 20, jazz piano prodigy Emmet Cohen plays with the maturity and confidence of a seasoned veteran. With astonishing technique and an innovative harmonic palate, Emmet shares a deep musical bond with his audience. He has shared the bandstand with a plethora of jazz luminaries including Christian McBride, Joshua Redman, Patti Austin and Maceo Parker. 12:30pm, World Financial Center Plaza, 220 Vesey Street, Also Friday, July 16, 12:30pm, One New York Plaza, Water Street between Whitehall and Broad Streets. Free.

Duncan Sheik: Broadway2Battery

Music at Castle Clinton

Presented by Alliance for Downtown New York

Tony and Grammy® award-winning composer and songwriter Duncan Sheik has navigated both the Great White Way and the world of pop and indie rock. Sheik's achievements include Tony Awards for Best Orchestration and Best Original Score, as well as a Grammy® Award for Best Musical Show Album for Spring Awakening. His latest release, Whisper House, hones his integrated voice – it is as much pop as it is a musical theater composition. PLEASE NOTE: Tickets will be distributed two per person outside Castle Clinton on a first-come, first-served basis starting at 5:00pm on the day of the show. 7pm, Castle Clinton, Battery Park at State Street. Free.

Friday, July 16

Paul-André Fortier: Solo 30x30

Presented by The Joyce Theater and Arts Brookfield Properties

Solo 30x30 is a 30-minute dance performance presented at the same location, at the same time for 30 consecutive days. Created by choreographer and performer Paul-André Fortier, one of the leading figures in Canadian contemporary dance, this minimalist work is stripped of the stage's artifice and grounded in the urban décor to form a bond between performer, audience and place. July 16 - August 14, Noon-12:30pm. One New York Plaza, Water Street between Whitehall and Broad Streets. Free.

Thee Oh Sees with Golden Triangle and So Cow

Seaport Music

Thee Oh Sees' psychedelic sound weaves "AM radio howl with the catchiest of driving tunes" to create "gorgeous harmonies, heightened fidelity, thick spring-reverbed bombast, [and] mighty drums." Brooklyn's Golden Triangle, a band of three girls and three boys, plays loud and spooky, reverb-drenched distorted girl group pop, mixing male/female vocals with gnarly surf guitar jangle. So Cow tops off this great line-up. 6pm, South Street Seaport, Pier 17. Free.

Friday, July 23

Free Energy and Best Coast with Loose Limbs

Seaport Music

Free Energy, dubbed "one of the best live bands in America," by SPIN, Pitchfork, and Rolling Stone, delivers "guitar-heavy and totally unironic AM-rock sound" reminiscent of Tom Petty and Mick Jagger. Best Coast, among the most promising new indie acts of 2010, draws its sound from the '50's and '60's aesthetic of The Beach Boys and The Everly Brothers. Seaport Music Record's own Loose Limbs starts the night off. 6pm, South Street Seaport, Pier 17. Free.

Wednesday, July 28

Jason Green

Presented by Arts Brookfield Properties

Hailing from Cleveland Ohio, this veteran guitarist has been playing blues and jazz professionally around the world since the age of 17. After spending six years on tour, he relocated to NYC in 2004 and has worked with many popular local acts, including fronting his own band, Jason Green and the Labor of Love. 12:30pm, Zuccotti Park, Broadway between Cedar and Liberty Streets. Free.

Plena Libre

Presented by Battery Park City Authority

Fifteen years and thirteen albums later, this fine-tuned 12-piece Puerto Rican based ensemble is still captivating audiences with their high-energy rhythms. Plena Libre brilliantly combines a swinging rhythm section, horns, vocals, and dance to create an electrifying stage presentation that is both profoundly Puerto Rican and universally appealing. 7pm, Wagner Park, Battery Place and West Street. Free.

Thursday, July 29

Chris Velan

Presented by Arts World Financial Center

From the folk-rock of his youth, through the reggae of his college days, to time spent in Africa, Chris Velan has created a unique collection of songs that inspire repeat listening. Not often will you find an artist that juxtaposes the horror of sectarian strife with the hopeful musings of errant love. Thursday, July 29, 12:30pm, World Financial Center Plaza, 220 Vesey Street. Also, Friday, July 30 at 12:30pm, One New York Plaza, Water Street between Whitehall and Broad Streets. Free.
